Primary Care Physician Locum
Part-time and full-time opportunities available immediately

A busy community health centre, located in the heart of downtown Toronto, across from Kensington Market, has openings for locum primary care physicians. Working in an interdisciplinary team environment, with the support of experienced medical administration staff, nurse practitioners, community health nurses, social workers, dietitians, settlement workers and professional interpreters, we are looking for individuals interested in working for the short and medium term on a part-time or full-time basis. (Part-time 17.5 – 24 hours or Full-time 25 – 35 hours)

Our clients are newcomers to the City of Toronto. Locums would provide comprehensive primary health care to our patients on an scheduled appointment as well as triage basis, as well as participate in providing on-call services (evenings and weekends). Call does not require attendance at homes or the office and is not onerous.

Remuneration is $82.07 per hour, with additional on-call stipend.
